From all of us here at

CHEERS!

New Years Traditions:

- Many people around the United States will feast on black-eyed peas on New Year's Eve as they believe that it brings good luck.
- Similarly, leafy greens and legumes are eaten in Ireland, Germany and Italy.
- The Japanese, on the other hand, believe that eating long noodles on New Year's Eve means that they would be granted the gift of long life in the coming year.
- Mexico, Greece and other places celebrate the holiday by feasting on ring-shaped cakes, which are meant to denote the fact that life has come a full circle.

GOT MULTIPLE ORDERS?

Try our new service - Batch Tie!

Instead of logging into our website every time you need to place an order, you can send us an Excel file with a batch of records that we will import into our system. Files can be sent once a week, or whatever schedule is convenient for you.

We will provide you with the spreadsheet template, showing what information we require. After your records have been imported in our system, we will send you back the Order Numbers as confirmation that the orders have been entered.

Please contact us if you would like more information on this service.

NATIONWIDE'S EMPLOYEES - HAVING FUN & RAISING FUNDS FOR OUR COMMUNITY

We would like to send a shout out to our Shannon. In September she rode with 5,000 other people in Levi's Gran Fondo, where all proceeds raised go to charities that help at-risk youth.

Shannon rode 63 miles from Santa Rosa, out to the coast of Bodega Bay and climbed the very steep Coleman Valley Road in the process (all on her bicycle she named Rose).

This is the farthest Shannon has rode. For training she would ride to Occidental and Santa Rosa/Healdsburg area about 45/50 miles per every Saturday, she couldn't train during the week because of school every night.

Shannon said it was very rewarding and a lot fun. She is looking forward to participating next year. Great job Shannon!!
